EDMONTON - A four-year-old boy is in hospital in critical condition after he was mauled by a pack of dogs, including a pit bull, in Edmonton's northern neighbourhood. A four-year-old boy is in hospital in critical condition after he was mauled by a pack of dogs, including a pit bull, in Edmonton's northern neighbourhood. It happened at a home on the 1400-block of 105 Avenue in north Edmonton near the intersection with 80 Avenue, just south of West Jasper Avenue. Police say the child was rushed to hospital with severe dog bites to his upper body and arm. He sustained serious injuries to his face. His identity is not being released until his family is notified. Witnesses say the dogs started attacking the boy after their owner opened the door. Police were first called to the residence at about 7 p.m. on Wednesday. When they arrived, they found that the dogs had left the home. But, when they returned, they found the child had been rushed to hospital in serious condition. The dogs weren't put down, and it's not known how many there were. The attack happened while the child's family was on their way to a relative's

Left Mouse Button Fix Registration Code PC/Windows

Left Mouse Button Fix is a software tool which can be used to correct the actions taken when your left mouse button is broken. If this aforementioned device double clicks when you are trying to click only once, you might need this app. Use it on any machine This utility is portable, which means that you are not required to install it on your computer. You can copy the program files to any location on the hard drive, and simply double-click the EXE in order to launch it. Aside from that, you can place the last mentioned files on a USB flash drive and run Left Mouse Button Fix on any PC you can connect to. Even though modern Windows iterations come with .NET Framework in the default feature package, it's best to check if it's installed because it's a mandatory requirement. Another important aspect is that the Windows registry and Start menu will not suffer any changes, and it will leave no trace after its removal. Clear-cut interface The UI you are greeted by sports a pretty minimal and straightforward design. To be more accurate, it is only comprised of two buttons which enable you to start and stop the fixing process. Moreover, you can view the number of double clicks fixed. This software tool is also unobtrusive, as it goes in the system tray from the first launch and can be sent there at any point. Conclusion CPU and memory usage remains low at all times, which means that your computer's performance will not be affected, and you can run it alongside other apps without encountering issues. To sum up, Left Mouse Button Fix is a tiny, yet handy piece of software for people with a broken mouse. It has a good response time and it is accessible to both power and novice users.

FloraChurch A Detroit church has been receiving support from an unlikely source after a landmark ordinance protecting gay rights was signed into law. The anti-bullying ordinance was signed on April 25 by Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan. It bans bullying and protects transgender and lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) students in schools, which has been the target of discriminatory bullying since it was approved by the Detroit City Council in July. Although the ordinance ban was approved in July, the plant has yet to finalize its policies that implement the law. Duggan is expected to visit the FloraChurch plant in January, according to a campaign to elect him to a second term, where he'll be invited to address the congregation.
