Its biggest feature is that it can be used with the full suite of FIFA Ultimate Team modes including Ultimate Team, Draft Mode, MyClub and FIFA Ultimate League. This feature lets players create a squad of legendary players and take them through gameplay challenges by setting weekly, monthly, annual, and year-end points goals and challenging leagues. Individual level and ranking achievements can also be unlocked, as well as a new career mode called 'My Career'. A new feature called 'Co-Op Play' allows a single player to play a new Co-Op mode alongside one of the real-life players whose actions they are mimicking. Closer to our hearts, FIFA 22 also brings new licensed music to the series, including 'What I Like About You' by the Beatles, 'Kids In America' by Gary Glitter, and 'Dance With Me' by Toploader. Getting to the 'custom player' is the first step for owners of the last-generation versions of FIFA that aren't yet compatible with the new game. Fans will also be pleased to hear that the game supports two television screen resolutions (FHD 1080p and 4K UHD) for players and viewers to enjoy at home. Our goal in development for FIFA 22 was to give you an experience that truly brings the game and its millions of fans to life on and off the pitch. The game delivers a hugely detailed living, breathing and flexing community of players through the new HyperMotion Technology. We've also used the FIFA franchise's innovation as the guiding force behind the game to bring you a new gaming experience. We want fans to be able to face each other and enjoy in-game competition like never before. With FIFA, we have fully unveiled a new experience. This year's FIFA is now available for pre-order with a brand-new 2018/19 season and new licensed kits and much more. It will be available for PC, PlayStation 4 and Xbox One on Sept. 27. Don't forget that the FIFA Series Pass will remain available at £25.99/€30.99/$35.99 a season and can be purchased right up until the game is released. Lastly, here are the tips we've picked up on over the
