kitchen puja – this is performed to remove all negativity from the kitchen. this is performed to remove all negativity from the kitchen. while cleaning the kitchen, all things that are believed to be bad are removed. it is performed after puja. the directions given in this detailed guide will help you in performing this puja without any problems. on the day of rudrabhishek, we must perform the sadhana (ritual) on the guru's day. the sadhana is performed on the day of guru's ekadasi, in which the previous ekadasi prayer is performed. for the best results, it is recommended to perform the sadhana of lord rudrabhishek on the same day on which the previous sadhana was performed. in a regular yagna, a suitable puja is performed to the deity. as the yagna is performed in our sadhana, we worship the particular deity that is relevant to our yagna. in this particular ritual, we worship the lord shiva for receiving the punishment of lord rudrabhishek and lord rudra for taking away the punishment. in this way, we have to perform the puja to lord shiva and lord rudra, at the same time. therefore, when performing the puja to lord shiva, one has to worship the trinity of lord shiva-ganesha-surya, which is one of the most authentic puja mantras. hence, this is not just a mantra for lord rudra's puja, but it is also a mantra for lord shiva's puja. we can also combine this mantra with bhagwan's mantra (aum), which is a very authentic mantra for lord shiva. it is believed that chanting this mantra 108 times with rudraksha mala will bring prosperity, peace and happiness into your life. the symbol of prosperity and protection for humanity, this mala will protect you from all types of negative energies and strengthen your life. 5ec8ef588b
