"Ideas need to be shared, turned into action, and solved for the good of our city and our region." Progressive values and ideas make New Orleans great. I have a vision for a city that prioritizes public investment in its schools, promotes and protects the security of all children and families, creates good paying jobs that are accessible to all, balances the budget, and rebuilds our culture and economy so that all people are part of the city and region's reinvigoration. I will work to expand opportunity so that we are all able to thrive in a city that works for all people. Progressive people are in fact New Orleans. Progressive people are good for all New Orleans residents, good for the region, and good for all of Louisiana.Polls show three-way race for Va. governor, Senate Published: Monday, March 2, 2013 at 10:59 a.m. Last Modified: Monday, March 2, 2013 at 10:59 a.m. RICHMOND — Three Democratic candidates are competing for the chance to challenge U.S. Sen. Mark Warner in November. Two of the Democrats — Attorney General Mark Herring and Prince William County Supervisor Corey Stewart — have enough support to win the primary, and one of them will advance c6a93da74d
